REGAINING ITS PRESTIGE

RACING ATTRACTS HOLIDAY CROWD OF 20,000

PEOPLE TO BELMONT PARK.

James R. Keene's Unbeaten Colt, Sweep, Wins the

Valuable National Stallion Race with Ease—

Harrigan Takes Van Cortlandt Handicap.

New York, May 31.—Despite the numerous counter attractions of Memorial day racing at Belmont Park today received a big share of patronage. The attendance approximated 20,000. As nearly as could be learned, the exact figures in paid admissions were as follows: 11,000 men at $3.00; 6,500 women at $1.50; while 1,000 male clubhouse members were taxed $5 each. The women visitors to the exclusive enclosure are not included in the foregoing estimate. As usual, the Long Island Railroad's transportation facilities proved inadequate to handle the crowd. Every train that pulled out from both Long Island City and Brooklyn was packed to the guards. The congestion became so acute finally that a number of extra trains were placed in service. At the request of the railroad company the first race was postponed until 2:15 in order to enable some thousands of isolated racegoers to arrive in time to witness its running. Among the notables in the clubhouse was Lieutenant-Governor Horace White, who seemed to be much impressed with what he saw. After being shown over the grounds by August Belmont, Mr. White said: "This is my first visit to a race track since I was a boy, when during my vacation from school, I visited the old Saratoga course in 1875. I came to Belmont Park today simply for pleasure and recreation. My presence has no official significance. I have been much impressed by the distinctly high tone and class of the people who are here this afternoon. Belmont Park is a wonderful place without doubt. I had no idea there was anything half as big or grand as this in America."

Lieutenant-Governor White was among the senators who voted for the Hart-Agnew bill a year ago. The immense concourse at turf headquarters was certainly a great tribute to the sport. The program was not only numerically weak originally, but was further depleted and almost ruined by scratches, so that it fell far short of the standard of the big day attractions of preceding years. The first five races on the card, including the National Stallion Race, the Van Cortlandt Handicap and the Grand National Steeplechase, had only eighteen starters all told. However, what was lacking in quantity, was made up in quality.

James R. Keene's unbeaten crack two-year-old, Sweep, was the most magnificent of attractions. The blacky Ben Brush youngster was favorite in the National Stallion Race, one of the richest juvenile fixtures of the turf. Though opposed by the pick of the great Madden and Belmont establishments, Sweep's jockey was able to keep him back within reasonable distance of his opponents and the colt fairly ran away with the boy. On his return to the stewards' stand, a great ovation was accorded the Keene crack. Lieutenant-Governor White was visibly impressed and insisted on following the victor into the paddock in order to have a better look at him. He was introduced to James Rowe, the trainer, and talked with the latter about his charges like an expert horseman. After Sweep's amazingly easy victory over Newman, Big Stick, Rocky O'Brien and Starbottle, many horsemen straightaway pronounced the defeated colts nothing but selling platers.

The racing began with a brilliant display of speed and stamina by Lady Bedford. Aside from Mackette the leading colt, who held all honors of age and sex safe at a mile. Beyond that distance Lady Bedford may be able to hold her own even with James R. Keene's filly.

The Van Cortlandt Handicap was robbed of considerable interest by the withdrawal of Phiz Herbert. The public backed Jack Atkin to a man and Barney Schreiber's horse went to the post an odds-on favorite, but he again went down to defeat. Close observers charged his defeat to jockey Scoville, who guided him the longest way home. It was the worst beating Jack Atkin has sustained since he became a racing star of the first magnitude. The winner turned up in Harrigan, which incidentally owned by H. R. Brandt, the trainer of Jack Atkin. In the west the two horses would have been coupled in the betting, and very properly, too. The well-played Harrigan led all the way, was never fully extended and won with great ease.

The cross-country feature, a one-sided affair, was won by Sir Woodstock, a misnamed misadventure on Kentucky Beau. This fast horse, which on the flat could hardly have been pulled back to the others, held forth in the rear from first to last under a hard pull. R. Lucas' unique exhibition of cross-country riding, by Resolute II—Long Lost, was due to inexperience and extreme timidity.

The tabulated history of the Grand National Steeplechase is given below:

Year.	Winner.	A. Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1899	Trillion	163	Mr. W. Hayes	$6,150	4:27 1/2
1900	Phila	153	Bonnie	5,525	4:32 1/2
1901	Sackett	157	Carson	6,100	5:13
1902	G. W. Jenkins	133	Ray	5,525	4:33
1903	Plohm	141	Ray	6,050	4:28 1/2
1904	St. Jude	142	Ray	5,450	4:39
1905	Mack, Dwyer	149	Holman	5,215	4:42 1/2
1906	G. and Plenty	170	Ray	5,675	5:25
1907	Alfar	143	Owens	5,500	5:38
1908	Kara	138	McAfee	4,775	6:15
1909	Sir Woodstock	165	Davidson	740	5:31

Celt worked a final and impressive mile and a quarter for the Brooklyn Handicap at Sheepshead Bay during the morning. The fractional time was as follows: 1:23, 2:43, 3:57, 4:58, 1:01 1/2, 1:13 1/2, 1:26 1/2, 1:32 1/2, 2:07 1/2, easing up.

Jockey Glass was set down for two days by the starter on Saturday. James Rowe and A. G. Blakeley scratched Affliction and Perry Johnson today on that account.

Silas Veitch announced that he would ship his string of jumpers to Brookline for the coming meeting there.

YOUNG HORSES FOR ZIEGLER SALE.

Cincinnati, O., May 31.—The horses in training belonging to Henry Ziegler, to be sold at auction next Saturday in the paddock at Latonia, include the following:

Barleythorne, ch. c. 2, by Woolthorne—Frederica, Ashwell, b. c. 2, by Alloway—Melton Mowbray, Gramercy, b. c. 2, by Resolute II—Long Lost, Kichil Tanaka, br. g. 2, by Resolute II—Lady Kantaka, Lena, b. f. 2, by Garry Hermann—Crimea, Polythema, br. f. 2, by Resolute II—Countess Pepper.

Ethlyn B., b. f. 2, by Ethelbert—Alus, Saraband, br. f. 2, by Nasturtium—Souffle, Stolyan, br. g. 2, by Meltonian—Bernuda Lily, Miranar, gr. g. 4, by Faraday—Crimea.

FIFTEEN YEARLINGS AT BROOKDALE.

New York, May 31.—E. C. Taylor, the manager of Harry Payne Whitney's Brookdale Stud, came up from New Jersey Saturday to see the racing at Belmont Park. Mr. Taylor says that there are many fine-looking yearlings at Brookdale and one of the most prepossessing of the lot is a son of Hermis and Braw Lass. This youngster was purchased last fall by Jack Joyner at the Holmdel Stud sale. Braw Lass, which went to Brookdale with the Hermis colt, was a daughter of Eolus. Mr. Taylor has bred ten mares to Broomstick this spring, fifteen or more to Hamburg and ten or more to Burgonaster. The horses of the Whitney Stud are all in fine condition.

DAILY RACING MAY SOON BEGIN.

Jockey Club Members Say Sport Is Assured So Long as Present Law Is in Force.

New York, May 31.—Racing in New York so long as the present law is in force is assured, and it may be that daily meetings will be held in the near future. This is the opinion of some members of the Jockey Club. It is believed that, under the oral betting system, profits can be made by all the courses. Already it is said that Aqueduct and Jamaica, which were not provided for in the early plans of the Jockey Club, are likely to be the scenes of meetings before the case is over.

When Gravesend opens Thursday turfmen will be interested to observe the attitude of the Kings County district attorney's office and the police department toward oral speculation as defined by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court. The Nassau County authorities have been unable to secure sufficient evidence to warrant arrests at Belmont Park, with the result that much freedom has been enjoyed by the public there. A well-known Brooklyn politician, who is interested in the welfare of the turf, said yesterday:

"If the law is obeyed to the letter there can be no trouble at Gravesend. Just so long as persons who accept oral wagers do not take cash and record transactions and as the police do not look for violations of the law and if persons are arrested it will be up to the district attorney's office to prosecute them. But I hardly believe that the district attorney's office will go to the extra trouble of searching for evidence over the heads of the police officials, especially when it is remembered that Mr. Elder's vigorous methods last year at the tracks have resulted in complete failure in all the cases that have been passed upon by the courts. By living up to the requirements of the law the speculators can do business without fear of trouble and the racing can be made to support itself. Reaction in favor of the sport has already set in and the unpopularity of the new law will steadily increase."

If there is smooth sailing at Gravesend, which probably will mean a larger average attendance daily than has been recorded at Belmont Park, there is every reason to believe that the Brooklyn Jockey Club will race at least four days a week. If not five. The fact that the Belmont Park meeting so far has netted a profit has greatly encouraged the other track owners, who want to race as often as possible. In the opinion of many racing men, the opening of Gravesend will show a decided increase in attendance.

ELMENDORF STUD TO BE DISPERSED.

J. B. Haggin Planning to Abandon the Breeding of Thoroughbreds.

Lexington, Ky., May 31.—James B. Haggin, after spending a week at Elmendorf Farm, left yesterday for New York. Tuesday John Mackey will leave for New York with a big consignment of thoroughbred mares and stallions, which are destined for the Argentine Republic and will take boat at New York immediately upon their arrival in that city. All the mares are barren, their mating with stallions having been intentionally deferred until their arrival in the Argentine where the breeding season begins about September 1. About the middle of June a big consignment of yearlings will be sent to England from Elmendorf and later along there will be another lot going to the sales in New York. It is Mr. Haggin's expressed intention to disperse Elmendorf Stud of thoroughbreds, and he is doing so as speedily as possible. Within two years from now, unless he changes his mind, there will not be a thoroughbred on the place other than some snuff favorites at Saratoga and Hamburg, Belle, which will be kept there chiefly to look at. Elmendorf is to be chiefly devoted to dairy and agricultural pursuits in the future. A herd of over 100 Jerseys are being milked there daily and the erection of another big building for dairy purposes has been begun. About 300 acres is being planted to tobacco this year. There is a big flock of fine sheep on the farm. All this means the passing of one of the grandest breeding farms in the world.

HORSES AT WALNUT HILL.

Lexington, Ky., May 31.—Fletcher Driver of Walnut Hill Farm, breeder and principal owner of the Kentucky Oaks winner, Floreal, has three half-sisters to this good filly. Anyday, the dam of Floreal, probably the youngest mare to produce a winner of the Kentucky Oaks, is now only eight years old. Her two-year-old is by Helene, and her suckling is by Nasturtium.

There are now eleven mares in the stud at Walnut Hill Farm and ten of these have foals at foot, nine being fillies. One of the yearlings at Walnut Hill Farm is a chestnut colt by the Australian steeplechaser, Seahorse II—Clara K.

SUCCESS AT SALT LAKE ASSURED.

Salt Lake City, Utah, May 31.—The Decoration day crowd at the fair grounds numbered about 8,000, a little larger than that of the opening day. The fair was ideal for racing purposes and the townsfolk turned out generously. The sport is gradually winning its way and the daily patronage is on the increase. The draw-in today saw fifteen books in line, besides two field books. The meeting already is an assured success and will be followed in the fall by twenty days of racing in conjunction with fair week, which comes in October. The betting was brisk and the layers were kept busy all afternoon.

AMERICANS BEATEN AT ST. CLOUD.

Paris, May 31.—American horses competed in five races at St. Cloud this afternoon, but not one got first money. In the Prix Verbeuse, H. B. Duryea's Rose Noble was second. W. K. Vanderbilt's Chandos ran in the Prix Flying Fox, but failed to get a place, and his Kamapo did not do any better in the Prix Vieux Pont. T. P. Thorne's Abby ran in the Printemps Handicap, but did not show. In the Prix Rue Mr. Thorne's Fleurie got third place. Mr. Duryea's Fiance ran in this event, but was unplaced.

STAMINA RUNS UNPLACED.

London, Eng., May 31.—Harry Payne Whitney's Stamina was among the six starters in the Holiday Handicap at Hurst Park today. The result of the race was as follows: Seham, br. c. 4, by Gallipoli Lad—Search Light 1, Miesko, ch. h. 5, by Lesterlin—Mia 2, Aubergine, b. f. 4, by Islington—Umbra 3.

VIRGINIA RACING MAN PASSES AWAY.

Norfolk, Va., May 31.—John W. Cashin, one of the principal owners of the Jamestown race track, died here yesterday after a brief illness. He was a member of the board of aldermen of Norfolk and was forty-six years of age.

COULD HAVE STARTED OFF AUSPICIOUSLY.

New York, May 31.—Trainer James Rowe of the Keene stable has a little apprentice rider, Lilly, who missed riding a winner when Celt scored a cantering victory last week. Rowe wanted him to take the mount on Celt and told him that he would only have to sit still and the colt would do the rest. Lilly agreed to ride, but at the last moment he had an attack of stage fright and thought that something might happen to defeat the horse if he rode. He told Rowe that he thought he had better ride an experienced boy, so E. Dugan was chosen.

DIRECT TAKES THE SEAGRAM CUP.

Mackenzie Colt Defeats Jack Parker by a Nose in Feature at Woodbine.

Toronto, Ont., May 31.—The Seagram Cup, one of the annual fixtures of the Ontario Jockey Club meeting, was offered as an attraction at Woodbine this afternoon. Of the original named starters, five declined, while Ida May, Sudeman and Moonraker were added. The field was one of the best that has ever gone to the post at Woodbine, aside from that which contested the Toronto Cup Saturday. The race developed into a stirring contest with the Mackenzie colt, Direct, getting in the closing strides to win by a nose from Jack Parker. The latter made the pace throughout and ran a surprisingly good race. Glimmer, the favorite, was carried wide on all the turns and, when the final test came, quit. The race was worth $1,100 net to the winner.

The condensed history of the Seagram Cup is given below:

Year.	Winner.	A. Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1903	Easy Street	117	Hoar	$480	1:50 1/2
1904	Nameok	119	H. Michaels	450	1:49
1905	Chas. Elrod	114	Romanell	500	1:53 1/2
1906	Moonraker	117	E. Walsh	800	1:50 1/2
1907	Picaron	122	Nicol	855	1:49 1/2
1908	Photographer	133	Harty	900	1:49 1/2
1909	Direct	119	Rettig	1,100	1:49

Besides the race, the Tally Ho steeplechase and the Valley Farm Handicap, were interesting features. J. W. Colt's Economy showed a splendid performance in the jumping race, coming from the rear in the last quarter to close a big gap and win easily from Jack Parker. The latter had plenty of speed but made a couple of bad landings at the tenth and last jumps, almost unseating his rider at the latter point.

Terah proved an easy winner in the Valley Farm Handicap. He finished with his usual brilliant stretch sprint after being outpaced in the early stages.

The attendance was again large and society was out in force on the clubhouse stand and lawns. Four favorites and two well-backed second choices won and the balance on the layers' sheets again showed a deficit.

Jockeys Goldstein and Rettig each piloted two winners. Courtland H. Smith's useful jumper, Ben vole, will not start again this season. The horse was quite lame this morning and his owner has decided to ship him back to the farm and use the firing irons on his legs. He has hopes of natching him up for next season. Trainer Douglas will take up two fresh horses belonging to Mr. Smith and prepare them for steeplechasing. One is Merriman and the other a five-year-old maiden by Tournament, standing close to seventeen hands high. He took the blue ribbon in the class for hunters at the Warrenton and Madison Square horse shows last fall.

There is an epidemic of sickness among the stables at Woodbine. It is a sort of fever. Twenty horses in the Seagram stable are down with it, ten in the Shields stable and all of Anne Turner's. A couple of J. W. May's showed evidence of illness this morning and he decided to ship immediately to Montreal. His lot will leave for Blue Bonnets tomorrow night.

A account of the illness of several horses in his string, Albert Simons, has decided to remain at Woodbine until the opening of the Hamilton meeting. Hurlock's last race was so disappointing to Captain Presgrave that he has decided to use her as a back for the remainder of the season.

FRIENDS OF RACING TRIUMPH.

H. D. Brown Sends Information of Great Victory for the Sport in Florida.

Toronto, Ont., May 31.—Arthur Elrod is in receipt of a telegram from H. D. (Curry) Brown, who has been in Florida combatting the attempt to enact anti-racing legislation, which reads as follows: "We won a great victory today." This is taken to mean that the opponents of racing have been effectually routed and that racing in Florida is safe. Now, that the future of the sport is assured, Monroff Park at Jacksonville, will be made one of the most beautiful race courses on the continent. Mr. Brown and his associates have ambitious plans for next winter's racing and Florida is likely to loom large in a racing way.

JOCKEY CLUB STEWARDS GRANT LICENSES.

New York, May 31.—At a meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club Saturday afternoon Andrew Miller was appointed steward to represent the Jockey Club for the Brooklyn meeting and H. K. Knapp for the Coney Island meeting. R. T. Wilson, Jr., was appointed deputy steward during F. R. Hitchcock's absence abroad.

The following trainers and jockeys were granted licenses:

Trainers—W. L. Lewis, French Brooks, J. L. Dever, W. W. Casey, C. F. Clark, William Waldel, W. D. Daly, Frank Ernest, J. A. Jones, S. S. Marshall, Matthew Myers, P. Mcaney, Peter McIntyre, John Neville, John I. Smith, Thomas Tault, J. C. Williams, Peter Wimmer, Frank Regan and John McNick.

Jockeys—William Cullen, J. Conlin, Jr., Stanley H. Davis, Charles Fairbrother, Guy Garner, Henry Horner, Philip Kelly, George Lynch, Fred Langzan, J. C. Mitchell, C. Miller, James Mulligan, James McDonnell, Walter Medlicott, Robert McLaughlin, Alfred Smith, M. J. Stammers, Harry Tansey, John F. Taral, Robert Powell and John Ural.

The following trainers' and jockeys' applications for licenses were laid on the table:

Trainers—P. S. Smith, John Toomey, George Wilkerson and D. J. Leary.

Jockeys—W. Knapp and F. Polanka.

Arthur Carter's application for reinstatement was denied.

ORMONDALE STUD TO BE REDUCED.

San Francisco, Cal., May 31.—W. O'B. Macdonough, one of the principal breeders of thoroughbreds on the Pacific coast, has decided to materially cut down his stud at Ormondale Stock Farm at Menlo Park, Cal. Mr. Macdonough will retain only those mares from the Santa Bella, Sloe and Libbertifibber families, with Ormonde top cross blended chiefly with Hanover and St. Simon blood. These families have immediate connections of high class, such as Ormondale, George C. Bennett, Oran, The Mist, etc. Mr. Macdonough declares that the best horse he has yet raised is the two-year-old Duke of Ormonde, by Orsini—Santa Bella. The Futurity winner, Ormondale, which made the season of 1907 at H. T. Oxnard's Blue Ridge Stud, will in all probability make the season of 1910 in Kentucky. Mr. Oxnard has some very fine foals by him and one in particular will be watched with interest, as he is an inbred three times Futurity winner, being out of Futurity, by His Highness, out of The Butterflies. Mr. Macdonough has a very good-looking colt by Adam, out of Roman Gold, at T. R. Gardner's Timberland Stud in Kentucky.

CRACKS SHIPPED BACK TO NEW YORK.

Toronto, Ont., May 31.—F. A. Forsythe's High Private was shipped back to New York Saturday night immediately on being cooled out after his race in the Toronto Cup. Dave Leary, Sam Hildreth's right hand man, left for New York Sunday morning with King James, the cup winner. Leary and jockey Guy Burns were entertained at dinner Saturday night by William Cahill, who is jointly interested with Hildreth in the gigantic sprinter, Smiley Corbett. Al Koenigsberg, for whom Cahill trains, was a guest, together with other turfmen. L. A. Cassidy, agent for P. T. Chinn, has gone to New York to look after the three-year-old, Donald Macdonald, who started in the Belmont Stakes on Wednesday. Jockey Dave Nicol has been engaged to ride the colt, and Chinn feels confident that his horse will run a good race.

FAST GOING AT LATONIA

NEW TRACK RECORDS MADE BY C. A. LEIMAN.

HYPERION II. AND KING'S DAUGHTER.

T. C. McDowell's Mare Makes Good at Odds-on in the Decoration Handicap—Holiday Attendance

Thousands in Excess of Derby Day.

Cincinnati, O., May 31.—Racing conditions today were perfect and lovers of the sport manifested their interest by attending in great numbers, there probably being 3,000 more at the course than on Derby day. Twenty-two layers—two less than on Saturday—quoted odds, and had a profitable day, most for the favorites being beaten. Improved track conditions permitted the breaking of three track records.

The feature race, the Decoration Handicap, of the net value of $1,700 to the winner, was taken in easy fashion by T. C. McDowell's good mare, King's Daughter. She was at all times an odds-on favorite, despite the weight concession she was making to her opponents, and never gave her backers a moment's uneasiness, as she took a long lead immediately after the start and maintained it throughout. Wool Sandals finished second a short distance in advance of the consistent Tom Hayward. The Peer and Floreal were withdrawn from the contest, but the adding of Maltbie left eight starters fighting it out for the purse. On The Mink's recent showing he was conceded a chance to give the McDowell mare a good argument, but ran down disappointingly and was beaten by all but Old Honesty. King's Daughter's time, 1:44, for the mile and a sixteenth, reduced the track record by two-fifths of a second.

The tabulated history of the Decoration Handicap is as follows:

Year.	Winner.	A. Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1902	Adelante	133	J. Hicks	$1,400	2:04 1/2
1903	Resurrection	132	Romanelli	1,750	1:54 1/2
1904	Resurrection	118	Munro	1,645	1:59
1905	Lady Savoy	130	Noonan	1,680	1:47 1/2
1906	Princess Orna	104	D. Austin	1,840	1:45 1/2
1907	Pasadena	114	Cherry	1,950	1:47
1908	Plunkola	107	Minder	1,525	1:46 1/2
1909	K. Daughter	122	V. Powers	1,790	1:44

In the six furlongs race the track record was also eluded and a new mark of 1:12 established. Hyperion II. and the speedy Colony fought out the issue with victory going to Hyperion by a small margin. Colony was thought to have the race at her mercy and was heavily backed at odds-on. She flattered her backers by going into a good lead and the outset and appearing a certain winner until it was the last sixteenth, when the Colony splinter came with a rush that brought him to the finish first by a few inches. Crystal Maid, which landed third, might have been returned the winner but for bad racing luck.

Cherryolla's defeat by C. A. Leiman was a severe blow to form players, but they derived consolation from the belief that she would have won but for a bad send-off caused by fractious behavior at the post. C. A. Leiman, in winning, established a new track record by running four and one-half furlongs in 5:58. Cherryolla came with a great rush in the last furlong and was going so stoutly at the end that she probably would have been the winner had the distance been a trifle greater.

The opening race, in which eighteen were originally carded, was reduced by withdrawals to eleven starters and it enabled T. P. Hayes to land his first purse of the year when Little Turner finished first just in advance of Billy Pullman.

A betting coup was attempted in the closing race on Miss Strone, but she tired and stopped so badly after following Keep Moving's pace for three-quarters that she finished unplaced. The fifth, won by Ludlana, was contested by about the poorest band that could be mustered here.

John Whitlaw's good filly, Irfanch, dropped dead this morning while being led from the track after a work-out in which she ruptured some blood vessels. The filly was highly thought of by her owner, who only recently refused $1,200 for her transfer to an eastern stable.

The Latonia Jockey Club stewards today announced the reinstatement of jockey A. Brown, who is under suspension on account of a faulty ride on Deutschland during the fall meeting of 1907.

Tod Cella contemplates maintaining a breeding establishment in the near future. He will in all probability select the Spring Lake ground, purchased by the Cella faction and originally intended as the opposition track to Latonia during the Western Jockey Club and American Turf Association strife. He will have a limited number of mares, probably fifteen, with Mentor at the head of the stud.

John C. Ferriss has added to his string of racers in making Civita, Deaf and Deafest to train for G. J. Long, which horses arrived here from Louisville this morning.

John B. Dillon, who has been connected with the Latonia Jockey Club since the early days of racing here, received the Democratic nomination for county clerk on Saturday last. Nomination is equivalent to election and as the term of office is four years and carries with it a salary ranging from $6,000 to $10,000 annually, it was gratifying to Dillon's friends that he landed the plum.

Young James McLaughlin got in this morning from Norfolk, Va., with nine horses that he will campaign here. P. J. Miles with three, M. T. Wood with two and M. D. Casey with three, also arrived.

Jockey T. Burns is expected in a few days and will do most of the riding for James McLaughlin.

Latest advices from authoritative sources in Florida intimate that the racing situation is safe and that no adverse measure will be enacted during the present session of the legislature. The Florida legislature will adjourn Saturday.

The report of a possible early resumption of racing in Chicago set the horsemen agog here, and in the event that the sport is permitted to resume every horseman here will be on hand for the opening.

Horsemen from Norfolk, Va., say that Al Valentin, who backed the meeting at the Virginia plant, lost $12,000 on the venture, and that the attendance was very light. It is considered doubtful if racing in that section can be put on a paying basis under present conditions.

SUMMER YEARLING SALES AT NEW YORK.

New York, May 31.—Reflection of the improvement in local turf conditions is furnished by an announcement that the Fasig-Tipton Company will conduct the customary sales of thoroughbred yearlings at Sheepshead Bay during the Coney Island Jockey Club's meeting, which will begin June 21. The general expectation at the opening of the season was that there would be no sales in the east this year on account of the demoralized condition of the turf consequent upon the passage of the Hart-Agnew law. The situation shows so much improvement, however, that the Fasig-Tipton Company is arranging to go ahead with the sales. Important consignments have already been received from some large breeding establishments. Rumor-mongers, Racedale, Dixiana and Hartland studs will sell on one day an aggregate of eighty-five head. Sales will be held on non-racing days, when owners and trainers will be at leisure. The yearling output will be about half the usual volume this season.

OVERSIGHT KEEPS ON WINNING.

Paris, May 31.—William K. Vanderbilt's Oversight won the Prix Lupit (Produce Stakes) at Longchamps yesterday. The distance was ten and one-half furlongs.

JACK ATKIN'S PRESENT CONDITION.

New York, May 31.—Barney Schreiber's great sprinter, Jack Atkin, seemed sore and propped in his box at Belmont Park, but he has been perfectly sound throughout his career. He is no worse this spring than he was last season, and it seems reasonably certain that he may win a number of races during the summer. Jack Atkin is destined to eventually join his sire, Sain, in the stud at Barney Schreiber's Woodlands Farm in Missouri. He is the best horse Sain has sent to the races and he is admirably qualified for stud service. He is a magnificent individual and was at all kinds of distances. As a weight carrier Jack Atkin classes with Voter, Typhoon II., Helobas, Isidor and Roseben.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

S. C. Hildreth says that King James is a sure starter in the Brooklyn. Guy Burns will pilot him.
There is considerable coughing among the horses at Toronto, for which changeable weather is held accountable.Live Wire's improved form this season is no surprise to those experts who have seen the horse. He looks a great deal better than ever before.Matt Byrnes is now at Buenos Ayres making arrangements for the reception of the consignment of thoroughbreds, the small shorty he shipped from El-merford Farm to the Argentine Republic.Fred Rockett has purchased from John E. Madden for racing on the Canadian circuit, the two-year-old colts, Plando and Radium Gun. Plando is by Plaudit —Dorsy and Radium Gun is by Ogden—Mamie Worth.O. Lynch, the novice who rode Beaulere at Belmont Park Saturday, is a product of "Father Bill" Daly's kindergarten for riders. The boy's overdoing of his waiting instructions is held accountable for Beaulere's failure to get some of the money.No three-year-old shown so far on the New York tracks has improved more in appearance than Fitz Herbert. The English colt has increased prodigiously in weight, much of his legginess has disappeared and he has the smooth, low action of a distance runner.The mausoleum of the late George E. Smith (Pittsburg Phil), in Uniondale Cemetery, Pittsburg, was strikingly decorated Sunday with an immense floral wreath, seven feet across, by his brother, William H. Smith, and his mother, Mrs. W. A.
Smith, also made the trip from New York for the purpose. A jockey whip in yellow and purple, the colors of the dead plunger, was attached to the wreath.

W. E. S., Los Angeles, Cal. 110 yards.

F. M., Cincinnati, O. It is the same horse. Keene Bros., unless they have sold it recently.F. B. R., Cincinnati, O. Your suggestion is a good one and will be adopted as soon as mechanically possible.S. S., St. Louis, Mo. Yes. The horse is notoriously liable to break down in any race in which he may be started, hence the price.G. M. C., Cincinnati, O. The bet on Garth enty.
Setback to go, May 29, was a draw, the meaning of such a bet being that Setback was to go as a part of the Garth entry.A Reader, Toronto, Ont. An entry is one or more horses. A coupled entry is two or more horses.
When in handbook betting one backs an entry specifically, his bet invariably means a coupled entry, else he would name a horse. In the case cited where an owner had a single entry in an early race and a coupled entry in a later race, a bet on the entry applied to the coupled entry. The bettor's intention, where it is evident, must be the controlling factor.
In this case the bet was on the coupled entry and should be paid. In the meantime backers should name the races on which they bet. It might be added that if the owner had had two coupled entries, the bet would have attached to the first race in which there was action.

Winner—Ch. c. by Prince of Melbourne—Marcelus (trained by F. Brooks).
Went to post at 3:17. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Marcelus trailed in striking distance; pursuit of the leaders to midway of the stretch, caught them first and drew out and won off decisively. Fashion Plate set a stiff pace to the stretch, shook Cohort off and came on like a winning, but succumbed finally to the winner. Cohort, carried to exhaustion by the stiff pace, quit badly at the end of five furlongs.
Overweights—Plate Glass, 2 pounds.

Winner—Br. c. by Ben Brush—Pink Domino (trained by J. Rowe).
Went to post at 3:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Sweep drew out instantly, proceeded to spread his position and won off pulling up. Newmarket began slowly, but steadily improved his position into a game second. Big Stick, away poorly, trailed far back in the early running, but finished a whirlwind going and close up third and is a coming good one. Rocky O'Brien, well up on the extreme outside in the early running, tired in the closing drive. Starbottle, after nearest pursuit for a half, tired at the end of a good race.

Winner—Ch. c. by Plaudit—Dorothy Hampton (trained by H. R. Brandt).
Went to post at 4:15. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Harrigan singled out at the start and won practically unextended. Restigouché, after striking distance pursuit, came away from the others midway of the stretch as if they were anchored in a fast going second. Jack Atkin, seemingly devoid of his usual speed and bearing out on the turn and in the stretch, was never a serious contender. Royal Onyx was outpaced all the way, but finished well on.

Went to post at 4:35. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Sir Wooster, after holding a brief rear position, moved up at the end of the first mile and held away unextended by a wide gap afterwards. Grandpa made the running on sufferance for the first mile, then gave way readily, but held on in second place persistently to the end. Kentucky Beau trailed a hopeless last under a pull throughout.

Went to post at 5:09. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second and third driving. Hill Top, nearly left at the post, rapidly improved his position in the early running and drew out decisively finally. Bonnie Kelso, from a striding start, set a tremendous pace for the first mile, but succumbed at the end. Taboo, from a bad start, was shuffled to the rear and closed an immense gap in the last half. Curt Lady, in forward position, loomed up menacingly midway of the stretch, but tired finally. Gus Helms, badly outpaced for half the journey, made a fast closing sprint in a cracking effort. Moorish King, flattered at the start and crowded rearward, was gaining at the end. Racquet, a prominent contender for one mile, quit badly and unexpectedly. Grania showed superior early speed and dropped out in the last quarter. Lasata failed to stay. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Went to post at 3:02. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. C. A. Leiman, away fast, followed Gilby closely to the last furlong, where he drew away and had enough in reserve to outstay Cherryola. The latter acted badly at the post and was away in a tangle, but came with a rush through the stretch and would have won in a few more strides. Gilby was speedy, dashed into a good lead from the start, but tired in the last furlong. Hallack was in close quarters in the stretch, but tired near the end. Hyperion II., away fast, showed a high order of speed and, staying close to Colloquy for the first half, were let down gradually in the stretch and got up in the last stride. Colloquy set a fast pace from the start and, with a stronger ride, would have won. Crystal Maid was almost thrown at the start and forced back to last place, but closed a big gap in the stretch and finished fast. Zenap, going wide throughout, was going well at the end. Westbury tired in the last quarter. Miramar ran a good race.

COMING OF A GREAT RACE MEETING.

Rich Stakes to Be Raced for at Ascot Shortly with Colin Expected to Start.

Until the middle of next month racing in England will be of meetings of minor class, although some really important stakes are to be pulled off at some of them, notably at Hurst Park and Manchester. But beginning June 15, and continuing for four days, the Ascot meeting will command attention on both sides of the Atlantic. In respect to amount of money given this is the leading meeting of the world, the daily disbursement to owners of winning and placed horses being between $35,000 and $40,000. It is truly "Royal" Ascot in all respects and is racing on a scale of astonishing magnificence.

It is here that the American stars of last year, Colin and Ballot, are confidently expected to make their debut in English racing and the Keene and Whitney stables will probably introduce some high-class two-year-olds, both stables being reported to hold several of great merit, which have been saved for the richest English stakes for two-year-olds. On the first day, Tuesday, June 15, the Gold Vase, at two miles, Trial Stakes, at seven furlongs and 166 yards, Fifty-fifth Triennial Stakes, at two miles, Prince of Wales Stakes, at about one and five-eighths miles, Fifty-second Ascot Biennial Stakes of five-eighths mile, and the Coventry Stakes, for two-year-olds at the same distance, will be decided. It is the latter that will chiefly draw attention. It is a six-year-old, full brother to Metaphor, and one of the leading fixtures for two-year-olds. Mr. Belmont's Merry Task and Amical, Mr. Keene's Coronet, Metaphor, Seneca and Suffragist and Mr. Whitney's Whisk Broom, Artless, Pequot, Top of the Morning and the St. James are the favorites of Navarre are in this. Merry Task is a bay colt by Octagon—Merry Task and Amical a bay filly by Octagon—Amicalia. Of Mr. Keene's candidates, Metaphor is a brown colt by Disguise—Bitorica and consequently full brother to Metaphor. Coronet is a bay filly by Voter—Rosegarland, Seneca a brown colt by Disguise—Swiftfoot and Suffragist a bay colt by Voter—Noonday. Several of these are reported to be in the order of two-year-olds that annually race in this country. Mr. Keene's recent years and if Metaphor is as good as Maskette, distinction surely awaits him. Whisk Broom is by Broomstick—Audience and enjoys the reputation of being the best of Mr. Whitney's two-year-olds. Artless is a full sister to Artful, but has started and does not run as that peerless filly did.

The Royal Hunt Cup, Tern Hill Stakes, Visitors' Handicap, Coronation Stakes, for three-year-old fillies, one mile, and the Ascot Biennial Stakes, Ascot Derby and the Fifty-seventh Triennial Stakes will be run Wednesday. American horses do not figure in these.

The events set for decision Thursday are the St. James Palace Stakes for three-year-olds at a mile, Forty-sixth New Biennial Stakes at a mile, Rous Memorial Stakes, New Stakes for two-year-olds at five-eighths, Forty-seventh New Biennial Stakes, Ascot Gold Cup at two miles and a half, and the All Ages Stakes at Windsor Castle Stakes for two-year-olds of a mile for three-year-olds. Coronet is of vast interest to Americans for the reason that both Colin and Ballot are expected to be among the starters. Both horses are fit and well, but have been so weighted that it would have been useless to start them in the big handicaps to which they were eligible. Here all go on equal terms, three-year-olds, 105 pounds, four-year-olds, 126, and older horses, 130 pounds. Among those the Keene cracks may be called on to meet are such celebrities as Woolf Winder, Signorinetti, Your Majesty, Galvan, St. Beria, Santo Strato and Langman. Mr. Belmont's Norman III. and Fair Play are also engaged, but the latter does not seem to have retained his American form. It remains to be seen whether Colin and Ballot have about the same American two-year-olds are in the rich New Stakes as those in the Coventry Stakes, with Mr. Carroll's good colt, Troubled Waters, an addition. American horses are also in the Forty-seventh New Biennial and the All Ages Stakes.

The last day has on its program the Workingham Stakes, Ascot Highweight Stakes, Fifty-sixth Triennial Stakes, Hardwicke Stakes at a mile and a half with $10,000 added, Windsor Castle Stakes for two-year-olds and the Alexandra Plate at eighty-six yards more than two miles and three-quarters. Colin and Ballot are in this long-distance race and American horses are also liberally engaged in the races of the day.

STAKE RACING OF THE WEEK.

Some important racing will take place at Belmont Park and Gravesend on Thursday and Friday of this week. Tomorrow, the last day of the Belmont meeting, two closed events will be run, the Laureate Stakes for two-year-olds and the long-established Belmont Stakes for three-year-olds. The Belmont is the richest of all American stakes for three-year-olds, and for the first time, is of the guaranteed value of $30,000, of which the winner takes $21,000, less his entrance and other fees. It has twenty-seven eligibles, but it does not now appear that more than six will start. Among the favorites are Wise Mason, Donald Macdonald, Warfield and one of Keene's trio, Ultimus, Sunbury or Casque. It seems a poor field for a race of such importance, but the unexpected is always prominent in racing and the contest may prove better than now seems probable. Thursday will bring about the opening of the Brooklyn Jockey Club's meeting at Gravesend, with the Brooklyn Handicap and the Criterion Stakes as the most attractive events. The Criterion is a dash of five-eighths of a mile for three-year-olds with $1,000 added, and Sou, Madeline L., Glenadene, Ocean Bound, Anzerona, Greenvale, Calypso, Mexana, Flashing, Decree, Cellaret and other fast ones among the eligibles. The Brooklyn Handicap was already run at Gravesend, and the winner, Wise Mason, with Celt, King James, Frank Gill, Master Robert, Fayette, Half Sovereign, Berkeley, Brother Jonathan and other cracks among the probable starters, will furnish a race worthy of its traditions.

Saturday will be marked by the running of the Kensington Steeplechase, Great American Stakes and Myrtle Stakes. The Great American is of the value of $2,500 for two-year-olds at five furlongs. Start-bottle, Dubaire, Waldo, Sweet, Flashing, Rocky O'Brien, Alexander, Newbold, Abraham, Shanton and Shannon are among the probable starters. The Myrtle is at a mile and one-eighth under selling conditions with $1,000 added and such good races as Hill Top, Bad News, Brother Jonathan, Beauchere, The Wrestler, Mary Davis, Anne, Eyebright, Montgomery, Dandelion, Redgouche, Norbitt, Henley, Sans Souci II., Monfort, Falada, Wise Mason, Royal Captive, Traveller and Lad of Langden should suffice to provide an excellent race.

Several stakes of value remain to be run at Toronto. Tomorrow, the King Edward Hotel Gold Cup of $1,500, with $1,500 added, will be decided. It is a dash of a mile and one-quarter at weight for age, with four-year-olds and upward. The winners are, King James, Hanbridge, Guy Fisher, Direct, Tourne, Elliott, Aronack, Bouquet, Stanley Fay, Zipango and Moquette among the good horses engaged. The Stanley Produce Stakes for Canadian-bred horses at a mile and one-quarter, will be run Thursday and the Tyro Stakes for two-year-olds; the William Hendrie Memorial Handicap for Canadian-bred horses at a mile, $1,000 added; the Waterloo Handicap for three-year-olds and over at a mile and one-eighth, $1,200 added, and the Street Railway Steeplechase at two and one-half miles, $1,200 added, will all go to form a grand program of racing for next Saturday.

The Montreal meeting begins next Saturday with the King's Plate and the St. Lawrence Handicap as the stake features of the opening day. The King's Plate is for horses owned, foaled and raised in the Province of Quebec and besides the fifty guineas given by King Edward, has $1,000 added. The St. Lawrence Handicap is for three-year-olds and over at a mile, with $1,000 added, and among its eligibles are Jack Parker, Donald Macdonald, Joe Gaitens, Quantico, Pearl Point, Stromeland, Fitz Herbert, Joe Madigan, Guy Fisher, Rose Queen, Direct, Simcoe, Aronack, Takahira, Desperado, Sig, Osorine and Darknight.

The Merchants' Stakes will be run at Latonia next Saturday. It is a dash of a mile under selling conditions with $1,000 added and among the speedy horses entered are Deuce, Prince Ahmed, Don Vargue, Tony Faust, Bad News, Alice, Marse, Alice, Hyperion II., The Peer, Royal Tourist, Anne McGee, Floreal, E. T. Shipp, Cymbal, Old Honesty, Keche-val, Hanbridge, Crystal Maid, Huck, Merriek, The Minks, T. M. Green, Rockcastle, Romp, Zienap, John McMillan and Moquette, so the prospect for a big field and capital racing is of the best.

RACING IN FAR INDIA.

Dr. Bossler Describes Conditions and Declares There Is Good Opening for Americans.

Lexington, Ky., May 30.—Out of the venture of Dr. Harry Chain Bossler, who is to sail from New York for Bombay next Saturday with a consignment of American thoroughbreds and jockey Walter Ott, a Chicago boy, to ride them, there may come the creation of a market in India for running horses bred in the United States.

Dr. Bossler is a native of Pennsylvania and is a graduated veterinarian. He has for the past four years been in the employ of the British government as an examiner of horses for the army in India, and has made several trips to India with large consignments of horses and mules bought in the United States.

"During my sojourn in India I have seen much of the racing at Calcutta and Bombay, where the principal meetings are held," said Dr. Bossler, "and I am convinced that American horses, which are used almost exclusively for racing, are not the equal of our American thoroughbreds, and by that I do not mean our toppers, but ordinary selling players. I was also satisfied from my observations and experiences that an average American jockey would have twenty pounds advantage over the lads that are riding best over there."

"I talked the matter over with a friend who is an extensive dealer in horses. He agreed with me that an opportunity to make money was at hand and we formed a partnership for the venture. I came over in February expecting to buy within thirty days about a dozen horses of the type I had in mind for buyers that would average $500. I found John and them exceedingly difficult to locate and I have to date only five with a reasonable assurance of getting three more and maybe five more when I reach New York next Monday. I will have to pay much more for them than I expected. I am all done with. No money passes. The big better simply walks up to the bookmaker, asks him in an ordinary tone if he will accept a lax (100,000) of rupees ($32,000) on a certain horse. In seven cases out of ten the bookmaker will accept that amount. In the other three he will take half a lax. Settlement is usually made in the clubs down town in the evening after the races. If the bookmaker and the bettor should happen to meet so early, but there is no specified time for settlement. No one ever hears of a wheeler in India."

"The racing season continues from October to April, and in that time there will be about seventy-five days of the racing. The races are run on a track a mile and a half oval, and the racing is all on the grass. The predominant events are sprints for ponies, of which there are two classes as to size—11.2 hands and 14 hands and under. The fastest of the ponies is the 11.2 hand pony. The expectation of having a longer Red for the pony races, but I found him 11.2. Had he been 14.2 or under I would have given $5,000 for him in a fifty. He is ideal for racing in India. He is as sound as a brass bell and has every other qualification, except as to size."

"I like jockey Ott very much, and I am satisfied that he will make good with me over there. He has the chance of his life. In making the contract with his mother I agreed to pay her a certain sum per month, advancing her four months' pay, and, further, to pay every item of expense for the boy out of my own purse, and to let him ride approved mounts from other stables and collect for himself the fees for such riding. If he doesn't make $10,000 between now and next spring I miss my guess."

"If I have success with these horses I will be back here next spring for another lot, and I would not be surprised to see some American owners send their attention to the Indian field. It isn't so far away as a lot of folks imagine, and let me tell you, there is plenty of money to be had there in racing, but it must come on the level. They will not stand for crooks in India."

EPSOM AND ITS ENORMOUS CROWDS.

New York, May 31.—The Herald's American Race-Guide, in his column of the 29th, has followed an Englishman told me there were 100,000 people on Epsom Downs when the Oaks was run Friday. He may have been right. I didn't count them. Certainly there was a big crowd. Possibly they knew their own numbers. I don't. If it were for a holiday they missed a large guess. The Epsom course is probably one of the worst in England. The paddock is half a mile from the grandstand. It costs $12.50 to get correct admission, and take it from me, while the show is worth about "five-bob," as they call it here, which translated into American money, is $1.25, whoever runs Epsom and Newmarket has the biggest cinch of anyone I know in this country.

"Both of these far-famed race tracks are just about deuce high to Belmont Park. There are many very pretty race tracks and attractive race tracks in England, but these are unimportant tracks. The big ones are undigested English jokes, and that's enough to spoil most any kind of racing. At Kempton Park Saturday, Leo Kline was conspicuous among the American contingent and had several tips which came true, much to the joy of his friends to whom he gave them. William Heck, of Chicago, who had just returned from Russia, was thoroughly enjoying himself. Altogether, it was a very satisfactory meeting. The races were close and exciting."

GOVERNOR GENERAL KEENLY INTERESTED.

Toronto, Ont., May 31.—Earl Grey, the governor-general of Canada, is taking a keen interest in the racing at Toronto, and has been in almost daily attendance at Woodbine since the opening. Upon the occasion of the winning of the Liverpool Cup by Direct for R. J. Mackenzie of Winnipeg, His Excellency made the formal presentation of the piece of plate. The Liverpool is for horses owned in Canada, and there is keen rivalry for the possession of the handsome trophy, which has to be won two years in succession before passing into permanent ownership. This year's outcome of the fixture afforded a fine demonstration of the progress of the Canadian turf, in that the card showed owners from points as widely separated as Montreal and Vancouver striving in eager and friendly contest. The stated, victory eventually rested with the cornering northwest, and the cup will be located in Winnipeg for the next year.

WOOTTON RIDES TEN WINNERS IN WEEK.

London, Eng., May 31.—Wootton, the young Australian jockey, won ten races in England last week, which brought his aggregate for the season to fifty-one. This is more than double the number of winning brackets "Danny" Maher has gained, the American's total to date being twenty-five.

LOUISVILLE MEETING REVIEWED.

C. F. Grainger Submits Report as Steward to Kentucky Racing Commission.

Colonel Charles F. Grainger, who acted as steward for the recent spring meeting at Churchill Downs, has made the following report thereon to the Kentucky Racing Commission:

"I beg leave to report that the meeting was the best in every respect I have ever attended, either in an official capacity or as a disinterested spectator. In my opinion it was one that would reflect credit upon any track in any country. The class of racing was not only exceptionally high, but the contests were close and spirited, while nearly every track record was broken. The racing was clean, healthy and absolutely above reproach."

"The style of betting employed was the same as last year, viz., the pari-mutuels and auction pooling. It proved satisfactory in every respect, not only to the public, but to the association. I also, in my opinion, contributed much to the cleanliness of the racetrack. There was no talk of scandal, nor any of the dissatisfaction that often follows other forms of betting."

"Even the jockeys entered into the spirit of fair play that characterized every department of the sport. There were but two cases of gross misconduct on the part of the jockeys. In one instance jockey Lee struck another jockey with his whip during the progress of the race and was promptly fined $100 by the judges. Jockey Walsh abruptly crossed a field of horses and endangered the lives of other jockeys. The judges suspended him for one week, and as upon his return to the saddle he was guilty of the same offense, he was set down for the entire meeting."

"The attendance was excellent, exceeding that of last spring, and embraced the very best class of people. There was no disorder of any kind, and this despite the fact that not a single policeman was employed outside of the racetrack. All sorts of every description were denied the grounds, the result being that the betting ring and paddock were free from disreputable characters."

"Take it all in all, the meeting demonstrated that, when properly conducted, racing has a secure place in the hearts of the people, and that the turf of Kentucky was never in a healthier condition."

ROSEBEN THE "BIG FREIGHT" NOW.

New York, May 31.—Before old Roseben defeated Black Mate and McCarter at Belmont Park Saturday, some one asked Day Jolson if the "Big Train" was good.

"He's good," said Mr. Johnson, "but we can't call him the 'Big Train' any more. We must dub him the 'Big Freight'."

After Roseben won, Mr. Johnson declared that he had put the reverse English on that "Big Freight" line. Roseben got a rousing ovation when he returned to the scales after landing the big end of the purse. Everybody seemed delighted that the gallant old sprinter had struggled out of his losing place.

But the "Big Train" or the "Big Freight," if you prefer Mr. Johnson's amendment, is not what he used to be. He had to do his best to beat Black Mate six and a half furlongs in 1:20. On October 15, 1908, it will be remembered, he took up 126 pounds and ran seven furlongs in 1:22.

SAM LAZARUS SELLS HIS STABLE.

New York, May 31.—Samuel Lazarus has sold his eastern racing stable to P. J. Malone, his trainer, and Malone will start for Canada with it. He will be accompanied by jockey Howard. The Lazarus stable consisted of six good-looking Texas-bred two-year-olds, by Maev.

Mr. Lazarus, who is a banker, stockman and farmer in Texas, has business at home which will require his attention throughout the summer. He has not sold his stud, however. He will keep Maev and Right Royal and his mares and bring another bunch of two-year-olds north next season. Mr. Lazarus has a fine-looking foal by Right Royal, out of the dam of Greendale, at Abingdon and a two-year-old eligible to start next fall in the Texas Futurity at Dallas. Malone will race the horses Mr. Lazarus sold him at Toronto, Windsor, Hamilton and Montreal through the summer.
